- Teams will be announced and parents and children will gather in their team group to meet:
- Parents elect Team Officials
- Training starts in one week

Team Officials u6 – u10 (Small Sided Games)

- Two Team Officials are needed
- They are the coach and the manager for the season
- They must apply for a Blue Card (applications at canteen) and an official Football Brisbane ID tag which must be worn at all games
- To start, basic coaching drills will be provided. Coaching skills will be improved by informal and formal training of coaches as the season progresses (Grassroots Coaching Course scheduled for Sunday, 28th March 2010 – tbc) – ideal for first time Coaches & Managers.

Training

- Training takes place one night per week for one hour as nominated for each age group
- Academy style training will be used for u6 and u7 age groups

Match days

- Home teams playing first up on a field are responsible for collecting nets from the canteen and erecting them on goals plus placing cones and flags in position
- Home teams playing last on a field are responsible for taking down nets and collecting cones and flags and taking all to the canteen
- Each team has a pigeon hole in the canteen for access to information – check it regularly
- Regular season matches commence on Saturday, 17th April 2010 – draws will be made available ASAP – please check your team pigeon hole in the canteen regularly or the club's website for the most up to date information.

Canteen Duty

- Every team shall be rostered to Canteen duty at least ONCE during the season – a roster will be provided early in the season. Team Officials are responsible for organising canteen helpers.

The Colleges website is updated regularly and has loads of information for Team Officials and parents including fixture draws and field locations - <http://www.collegesunited.org.au>
